

Cincinnati Compass advances economic and social inclusion of immigrants and refugees to enhance the overall vibrancy and economic growth of the Cincinnati region. Cincinnati Compass is a collaborative project of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber, City of Cincinnati, and more than 65 community partners who believe that immigrants and refugees are key contributors to a strong regional economy and a diverse, vibrant community.

Cincinnati Compass is a trusted connector, catalyst and convener that works with immigrant, refugee, and international communities to build social, civic and economic power.

Key Objectives

01

Create a region where immigrants and refugees feel welcome, wanted, and important.

02

Develop and expand opportunities for economic and social inclusion.

03

Influence policy change towards more inclusive and welcoming practices that open more social and economic opportunities for immigrants and refugees.

We focus our work in areas of workforce development, small business development and growth, and civic engagement.

We work

with community members, service providers, organizations, employers & local/regional governments to build inclusive policies and practices.

to connect immigrants and refugees to resources and to each other to enhance their social and economic opportunities.

to increase the civic engagement of immigrant and refugee communities to broaden the bench of representation and create more inclusive policies.
